ACC 7 is a paid major version upgrade and customers running previous major versions will generally require ACC 7 upgrade activation IDs (license keys) to use the software. However, depending on their purchase date, certain ACC 6 software license keys may be eligible to upgrade to ACC 7 free of charge. If you have a system with a previous version of ACC, contact your integrator partner or Avigilon sales representative for pricing and to determine upgrade licensing requirements for your system. Ensure you have obtained all required upgrade license keys prior to upgrading the software.
